Alignments

The seven creeds: zeal, signature orders, passives, hiring and the Grand Designs

Kingdoms Call reference sheet. Data file v2026.10.15-1202. Generated 2026-10-19 from the repository (branch at that date). Numbers are what the engine uses today, read straight from its tables; where a figure comes from the rulebook text instead, the section says so.

Alignment is the soul of a realm. It sets the chance of fanatical zeal in battle, who will serve the crown and at what price, the king's opening skill, the realm's signature order, and its Grand Design (the Sage 9 Wonder). The spectrum runs Divine, Good, Druidic, Neutral, Pagan, Evil, Undead, and hiring cost follows the distance along it.

What to look for when reviewing

- Do the seven creeds get a comparable amount? Divine has the most rules; Neutral and Good have the fewest.
- Zeal percentages: Divine 50, Good 40, Evil 25, Druidic 20, Pagan 15, Neutral 10, Undead 0 (replaced by fervour). Each is a ×1.30 roll per battle.
- Two creeds (Druidic, Evil) have no signature order since their summoning orders were removed; their strength is the beasts they lead free.
- The 20 Creed discoveries per alignment and the alignment-only items (listed at the end).

Where this comes from

- Rulebook: The Seven Alignments, Your alignment's signature action, How a Battle Is Fought (fervour).
- Engine: FANATIC_CHANCE_BY_ALIGN, KC_GRAND_DESIGNS, relations-and-captures.js (Evil conquest), ALIGN_ACTIONS.
- Rulings R-009, R-030, R-045, R-102, R-104.

Rules shared by every creed

Rule	What it is
Zeal	Before each battle a force rolls at its alignment's chance; on a success it fights at ×1.30. Defenders on consecrated ground roll at double chance.
Fervour never stacks	Zeal ×1.30, Evil Monster fury ×1.25, Undead skeletal fanaticism ×1.5 (king) or ×1.3 (hero): only the strongest counts (R-030).
Hiring by distance	A wandering hero costs 2g/turn at 0–1 steps apart, 3g at 2–3, 4g at 4–5; at six steps (Divine and Undead) they refuse each other. A hero who has grown while wandering asks 1g more per 4 skill levels beyond a fresh hero's.
Mercy	A felled Cowardly enemy begging for mercy is spared 75% by Good, Divine or Druidic; 50% by Neutral or Pagan; 20% by Evil or Undead.
Titles	No creed scores any Imperial Title differently (R-002).
King-only orders	Consecrate, Call to Arms and Broker can be given only to the king.
Grand Design	The Sage 9 mastery order "Grand Design" realises the alignment's Wonder; each is realm-wide and permanent.

Divine (zeal 50%)

King starts with: White Magic +1 (heirs too). Signature order: Consecrate (king only)

- Rest heals ×1.5 (30% of max HP, lifted by half again, rounded up).
- Bless Province adds +80% tax (others +60%); +100% when the Divine king casts it in person.
- Divine grace: a slain character (king included) spends one full turn dead and returns at half health, without armies or items, in the nearest consecrated province the realm holds; the miracle spends that consecration. No consecrated ground: the grace is lost and an heir is crowned as usual (R-009).
- Consecrated ground: +50% tax, defenders roll zeal at double chance, Undead and Evil hosts attacking it fight at −15%, and it is the only ground the fallen return on. Never the home or its neighbours, never bordering other holy ground; up to one per level of the king's White. Captured holy ground loses its consecration and every unit of the conqueror's column has a 50% chance to gain a tier (R-045).

Hiring: Holy end: dark heroes cost up to 4g/turn; Undead heroes never serve. Grand Design: Grand Cathedral, Bless costs you no casting slot, and its ward lies permanently over your capital.

Good (zeal 40%)

King starts with: none. Signature order: Call to Arms (king only, once per turn, from anywhere): a free Green garrison unit of the native type musters in any owned humanoid province.

- Righteous Defence: any army defending a province you own fights at +10%.
- Banner of Fellowship: allied contingents converging on the same battle unify +15% more readily.
- A felled Cowardly enemy who begs mercy is spared 75% of the time (they flee with 1 HP and hand over an item).

Hiring: Near the centre: most heroes 2–3g/turn. Grand Design: Free City Charter, Every province you hold that keeps a garrison yields +2 tax.

Druidic (zeal 20%)

King starts with: Druid +1 (heirs too). Signature order: none (Awaken the Wild removed 2026-10-12)

- All Creature armies follow your heroes with no Druid requirement (every Druid level then counts as mastery, +20% each). A hero still leads at most as many beasts as his Druid level (R-103).
- Home of the Wild: Creature armies fight at ×1.5 in forest and jungle.
- Starts beside a Creature province it can lead from turn one; at least one Creature province within two provinces of home.

Hiring: Central: most heroes 2–3g/turn. Grand Design: World-Tree Grove, Your monsters and creatures cost half their wages and muster as Veterans.

Neutral (zeal 10%)

King starts with: none. Signature order: Broker (king only): hire any wandering hero the realm can see without leaving the hall, or buy a guaranteed full Spy report on any province ever seen, for 2g.

- Trade: province tax income +20%.
- Cheapest court: every wandering hero costs at most 3g/turn, most the base 2g; mercenary bands cost 2g less.
- Scholars: each Sage level adds a further +5% discovery chance (10% a level, 50% at Sage 5).

Hiring: Centre: nobody refuses, nobody costs 4g. Grand Design: Grand Library, Your scholars make one guaranteed Sage discovery every turn.

Pagan (zeal 15%)

King starts with: Explorer +1 (heirs too). Signature order: Perform Rite at a discovered ritual site (owned or not): Wild Hunt binds two of the province's beasts as Veterans for the price of one (no wages, serve to the end of the following turn; Creature/Monster provinces only); Blood Offering sacrifices units to raise an equal number of others +2 tiers (to Elite). One rite per province per turn (R-008).

- Starts beside a wild forest or jungle province holding a ritual site.
- Blood Harvest: +1g per enemy unit your characters destroy in a victory.

Hiring: Central-to-dark: most heroes 2–3g/turn. Grand Design: Standing Stones, Your armies fight at +25% strength when defending forest, jungle or mountain provinces.

Evil (zeal 25%)

King starts with: Druid +1 (heirs too). Signature order: none (Call from the Pit removed). Conquest doctrine instead: loot (Plunder) or Enslave, chosen on the orders form.

- Savage fury: a host with any Monster unit fights at ×1.25 every battle, no roll. Never stacks with zeal (the ×1.30 counts instead). Needs a commander.
- All Monster armies follow your heroes with no Druid requirement (Druid levels then add +20% each).
- Terror: after a Decisive or better victory the province and its neighbours are terrorised: defenders there fight −10% in their next battle, stacking to three (−30%). Only Evil realms see Terror (R-102).
- Reign of Fear: your Monsters fight ×1.5 when attacking a province still under your own Terror; the Terror is spent by that battle.
- Plunder: conquering a province yields 50% of its tax value at once. Enslave instead: a Green garrison unit of the native type joins the garrison in chains and the province pays −1 tax for 3 turns.

- Felled Cowardly enemies are spared only 20% of the time. Evil hosts attacking consecrated ground fight −15%.

Hiring: Dark end: righteous heroes cost up to 4g/turn. Grand Design: Iron Throne of Skulls, Enemy units slain in battles you win may rise as your skeletons.

Undead (zeal 0%)

King starts with: Necromancy +1 (heirs too), and a unit of Skeletal Shieldwall Levies. Signature order: Harvest the Field: any character standing on battlefield graves raises one grave as a Skeletal unit for 2g, no magic needed (the most experienced dead rises). Hand it to a Necromancy 1 character before turn's end or it crumbles.

- No zeal roll. Undying fanaticism instead: any host with skeletal armies fights ×1.5 under the king in person, ×1.3 under any other commander. Never a leaderless garrison.
- Skeletal armies ignore the Druid penalty, cost 1g wages, never change quality, never disband for wages (last to go in bankruptcy), and crumble at turn's end unless held by a Necromancy 1 character.
- Deathless March: an all-skeleton force is never cut down in flight; with no retreat it stands and holds.
- Battlefield graves in your provinces decay at 5% a turn instead of 10%.

Hiring: Unholy end: righteous heroes cost up to 4g/turn; Divine heroes never serve. Grand Design: Deathless Legion, Your skeletal units never disband for unpaid wages, and rise one experience tier stronger.

Gaps, questions and things to check

These are observations from reading the data files, the engine and the rulebook together. None of them is a ruling. Each is a question for Toby or a place where two sources disagree.

#	Observation
1	Druidic and Evil have no signature order since 2026-10-12. The rulebook's signature-action table still lists "Evil: Enslave (passive)"; the engine offers Enslave as a conquest mode on the orders form (loot or enslave). Decide whether that counts as the signature and whether Druidic wants one.
2	Zeal is the only alignment rule that fires in every battle, and it is very uneven: Divine 50% against Neutral 10%. Neutral is compensated in gold (+20% tax) and Undead by fervour; Pagan (15%) gets Blood Harvest and rites. Is Pagan's package as strong as the others?
3	R-102 open question: with the Reign of Terror discovery a Terror stack is −25%, so three stacks are −75%. Did Toby mean the total capped at −30%?
4	R-104 open question: the Druidic discovery Deep Roots lost its first half with Awaken the Wild and now reads only "Creatures 10% less likely to die defending".
5	Alignment-only items exist for only some creeds (see the table above). Divine, Good and Evil have several; check whether Pagan, Druidic, Neutral and Undead want their own.
6	Only one Undead realm is allowed per game (join-screen text), which no other creed has. Confirm it is still wanted.
7	Good's Banner of Fellowship ("+15% more readily") is the one passive with no figure a player can check; the unify roll is not in the rulebook.
8	Divine grace plus Consecrate makes the Divine king the hardest to lose; the Cowardly temper text says a Cowardly king is "the safest". Worth a line in the rulebook comparing the two.
